

Storm Lord

Balflare

Here he comes
He is comin again to find his prey
A quick of fate
He inhales everything as he appears

Why don't you get away?
He will not wait for you

Do away with resistance along the way
Child like assailant
Eliminate all, so how will it be
There's no way of winning the game

Now he's gone
From darkness shines a spark of light and peace
No time to rest
You're already in the core of the storm better watch out!

Why don't you run away
Not worth losing your life

Do away with resistance along the way
Child like assailant
Eliminate all, so how will it be
There's no way of winning the game

I can only stay and wait for it to vanish
Child like assailant
Eliminate all, how will it be?
He'll wash away as he goes along

I
