

Tonight the moon
Is shining whole of the sea
Some living from the deep
Is now coming
The some are stay

Today the sun is cracking
Whole of the ice in arctic
Some bears are cling
The pieces of the ice
And the some are sink

The light from the ancient
Ancient rites

Can't you see the tears?
From (the) eyes of whales
They know the end
When the planets are in the line

Can't you see the tears?
From (the) eyes of lions
They know the end
When the gravity is gone

Tonight the sun
Is rising once again
The midnight sun
Shine on the equator
And burn out

Today the moon is lost
A part from the earth
Forever and ever
Living on the behind the moon
Coming to the front
Just waiting for the end

The light from ancient
Ancient rites

Can't you see...
