The Dunes

Balflare

I walk along the way for miles ahead
Do the same again today, the future I dread

And it's hard to remember who I am
Believed in a dream, but it's just a sham

Live like a child
Live in a wild
Forget the curse today
Go far away
I'm gonna die
As I realize
Only the doors of hell awaits me
It's no way to go

Crawling in the dirt, dragged along
Waiting to be taken away to where I do not belong

And it's hard to break with the days of past
Overcome our fears, struggle to outlast

Live like a child
Live in a wild
Forget the curse today
Go far away
I'm gonna die
As I realize
Only the doors of hell awaits me
It's no way to go

Live like a child…

Open the gate
Raise up my weight
Forget the curse today
Go far away
I'm gonna die
As I realize
Living like the dead is worse
Than a story of woe
