

Everything Is Shit Except My Friendship with You

Ball Park Music

Satan's dog
Is at the front door I'm giving her a biscuit
I can't cope
With a petty modern life
You blink and then you've missed it

Everything is shit except my friendship
With you

I went out
I went to the party and had a bunch of beers
I came home
I opened up about my lifestyle and ended up in tears
Everything is shit except my friendship with you
I sleep in
Drooling on the bed sheets hungover again
You work hard
When I roll over I see you now and then

Everything is shit except my friendship
With you

Fruit falls on my head and I don't discover anything [x4]
At all
At all

Everything is shit except my friendship
With you
