

Falling

Balligomingo

Open my eyes
Open my eyes and see you lying beside me
Touch your lips
Touch your lips to mine you're touching me inside
Lightning flashes, river swells
And Im crashing to the ground
Feels like Im walking through the sand
Water seeping through my veins
I feel just like a child
When Im in your arms
Falling fast and deep
Falling into heat
Falling to my knees
Falling free
Open my heart
Open my heart and mind
Let you embrace me
Dawn is waking
A new day rising
Sunlight touching my skin
And I want to be strong
Cause I want you in my life
Feels like Im floating through open air
Youre flames seeping through me
Falling fast and deep
Falling into heat
Falling to my knees
Falling free
