Ballyhoo!

I can't seem to focus on anything I love anymore
Don't know why you need to know this
Why do you even come and see my tours?
Supposed to do the dishes, supposed to take my girlfriend out t o eat I just wanna write a hit song
So add another hour 'cause I ain't got time to sleep

Another day hustling demons and I'm alright
Another day hustling dreams 'cause I don't sleep at night
Oh, we felt all the pressure coming in from all sides
Another day hustling danger and I'm alright, alright

Can't read that god damn book, no
I stare right through pages
And I left my ID three thousand miles away (Ah, shit)

Beer and liquor they don't help, no
I slayed a thousand stages, and I forgot my lyrics once again t oday

Another day hustling demons and I'm alright
Another day hustling dreams 'cause I don't sleep at night
Oh, we felt all the pressure coming in from all sides
Another day hustling danger and I'm alright, alright

(I can't seem to focus)
(Supposed to do the dishes)

Another day hustling demons and I'm alright
Another day hustling dreams 'cause I don't sleep at night
Oh, we felt all the pressure coming in from all sides
Another day hustling danger and I'm alright, alright
