

Instigator

Ballyhoo!

Lately I've been hearing things Disturbing things that you've been doing
And I did not set this up for nothing Just to see it brewing
You came along after the fact
I thought you always had my back But now I see that you're a flake and you manipulating take what's not rightfully yours
It's too late
And so I'm closing the door

Spoken like a tokin' instigator
and I'm calling you out Talk too much
and then you always gotta turn it around Keep on trying, I ain't buying
I know what you're about
Better watch it, cause you're toxic
And I'm forcing you out

We were suppose to be a team and now I know it's done
I can't believe I was deceived You'd think you know someone Cause I just imagined what might have happened if I let you stay
Just looking out for my family
And I won't let you break
What's not rightfully yours
It's too late
And so I'm closing the door

Spoken like a tokin' instigator
and I'm calling you out
Talk too much
and then you always gotta turn it around
Keep on trying, I ain't buying
I know what you're about Better watch it, cuz you're toxic
And I'm forcing you out

Spoken like a tokin' instigator
and I'm calling you out
Talk too much
and then you always gotta turn it around
Keep on trying, I ain't buying
I know what you're about
Better watch it, 'cause you're toxic
And I'm forcing you out
