

Meat Head

Ballyhoo!

You've got a vibe
Nodding like a freight train
Come rolling in with a one track mind and a boil in your veins
A change in the tide
And you want me to shudder now
Such a prick, want someone to flip your switch so you can exercise your right to be an alpha male and make me flinch
Your voice is shouting, and I'm a stereo
I gotta turn it up
Gotta turn it up
Yeah
You got a real bad attitude
Gotta find something else 'cause you're dragging me to hell, and I know I won't end up like you
What happened to you
Wasn't something your daddy said
Take it out on the innocence around, some more meat for your head
I sat out the times

But now your anger is getting old
Cross the line, now you want to step outside
You came to drink some beer and kick some ass and school us with your muscle mass
Your voice is shouting, and I'm a stereo
But I gotta turn it up
Gotta turn it up
Yeah
You got a real bad attitude
Gotta find something else 'cause you're dragging me to hell, and I know I won't end up like you
Yeah
You got a real bad attitude
Gotta find something else 'cause you're dragging me to hell, and I know I won't end up like you
Yeah
You got a real bad attitude
You got a real bad attitude
You got a real bad
