

Mind Over Matter

Ballyhoo!

Power to the ones that keep breaking through
Wishing only good things in front of you
We got different styles, we got different grooves
Go out and crush, yeah yeah

Haters gonna do what they love to do
Saying anything just to get to you
Pushing only good vibes to tell the truth
Never let nothing phase me

All these years I've been climbing the ladder
To greatness I'll fight, to be happy tonight oh oh
Holding steady is mind over matter
Be gracious and shameless
Get more than our day oh oh

The passion of creation is the only reason I haven't quit (maybe it's about love)
Caught myself in a stranglehold, never get out cause I'm out of control (not good enough)
It's like sitting on top of the car all night, trying to make the stars align (Call it a bust, maybe)
It's something about resilience that makes a man look dangerous

How would I be defeated?

All these years I've been climbing the ladder
To greatness I'll fight, I'll be happy tonight oh oh
Holding steady is mind over madder
Be gracious and shameless
Get more than our day oh oh
We could take it all the way back to '95
Mixin' punk rock with a rub-a-dub vibe
Cause we don't turn it down, we just amplify
Mind over matter 'til it's all mine

All these years I've been climbing the ladder
To greatness I'll fight, I'll be happy tonight oh oh
Holding steady is mind over madder
Be gracious and shameless
Be more than our day oh oh

We could take it all the way back to '95
Mixin' punk rock with a rub-a-dub vibe
Cause we don't turn it down, we just amplify
Mind over matter 'til it's all mine
