

Mixtape

Ballyhoo!

I can't explain this lately
I never even tried to talk to that girl
I throw a smile when she walks by
Thinkin' that should bring her into my world
But I know that's not enough
She's a diamond I can't touch
And I just don't have the guts
But I'm thinking

Maybe she'll appreciate a compilation on a tape
Of songs that illustrate how I'm feelin'
Oooh, I did it again!
I made her a mixtape
And she don't even know my name
I don't wanna be friends
Don't wanna make that mistake
I'm hopin' that she feels the same

Oooh, I did it again!
I made her a mixtape
And she don't even know my name
I don't wanna be friends
Don't wanna make that mistake
I'm hopin' that she feels the same

I must be crazy
That's the 3rd time this week
That I left her a CD
She probably thinks I'm a creep
I wanna tell her what's up
I wanna tell her so much
Her friends are looking like
What's this guy's problem?

I need to man the f*ck up
She's always making me blush
She knows that I've got a crush
And I'm trippin'
And so it's just gonna go
The only way it ever goes...
It goes...it goes...it goes now!

Oooh, I did it again!
I made her a mixtape
And she don't even know my name
I don't wanna be friends
Don't wanna make that mistake
I'm hopin' that she feels the same

Oooh, I did it again!
I made her a mixtape
And she don't even know my name
I don't wanna be friends
Don't wanna make that mistake
I'm hopin' that she feels the same
