

Baby, if you want it
Then why don't I let you know?
Right when I thought I had a chance
It turned out I was too slow

Nothing but loss
Can I ever win?
When it's just another one of those tricks
You use to turn me in, oh

Yeah, it changes what I do
Maybe it changes what I am
Right when I'm sure I know what I think of you
It changes back again

Nothing but love
Nothing but sin
Entertainment's what I'm gonna need
To make you mine again

Baby, if you got it
Let it be known
Don't deny it
Call it your own
Baby, if you want it
Wear it with pride
Come on girl now
Damn, if you'd hide

Entertainment in your bed
Entertainment in your sleep
Entertainment's what the world needs
To keep turning around you see

It's the fix I need once more
Before I end up down the grave
It's the sugar that can bind us
Makes me stick to what you say

Baby, if you got it
Let it be known
Don't deny it
Call it your own
Baby, if you want it
Wear it with pride
Come on girl now
Damn, if you'd hide

Baby, if you got it
Let it be known
Don't deny it
Call it your own
Baby, if you want it
Wear it with pride
Come on girl now
Damn, if you'd hide
