

Fifteen Floors

Balthazar

Waiting on easy street
A brown stone where writers meet
Waiting so indiscreet
My sugar to feel her teeth

I guess all she is
My mistress interpretation
Sick of your tricks
So get your kicks off my frustration

Your penguin suit is very cute
But I swear I can't remember
Dispute with a nude
Prostitute who smells like ember

Fire truck always pretending
Motherfucking Disney ending
Motherfucking Disney ending

And I don't know
I don't know
If you're the one
That taught me so

And I don't know
The words by heart
But it sure makes sense
Ever since that we took part

She said, Birth Control, Caffeine
Sick of daily routine
Birth control in between
Dancing with Billie Jean
Run to hell by midnight hours
WIN sticks and take a shower
Get your head on by the sword
Swallow we're on the fifteenth floor
Tell your mother that you love her
Kiss her like you kiss no other
Tell your mother that you love her
Kiss her like you kiss no other.

And I don't know
I don't know
If you're the one
Who told me so

And I don't know
The words by heart
But it sure makes sense
Ever since that we took part

Now all the hard faces I've come
With tears that are all from laughter
It won't take long before they get what they're after
It won't take long before they get-
All the hard faces I've come

With tears that are all from laughter
It won't take long before they get what they're after
It won't take long before they get-
