

Halfway

Balthazar

I'd follow you, not to ever return
It's a changin' mood, maybe there's somethin' to learn, but
You wanna love and wanna do it well
'Cause if there's none of it, what on earth is there to tell? But

Oh, but the chance is
Oh, but the chance is

Strong
I've been learnin' it wrong
I've been searchin' a ton
Been halfway and beyond
I swear I knew all along
I've been over the thought
It must be I forgot

If it's the fifth time that I say the same
Then forgive me for it, yeah, let me take all the blame, but If there's a chance to touch your heart again
I'll repeat myself till I lose count of this thing, hear me sing

Oh, I have heard what they say about you

And I don't need an explanation of what will be true
'Cause I wanna love and wanna do it well
'Cause if there's none of it, what on earth is there to sell? But

Oh, but the chance is
Oh, but the chance is

Strong
I've been learnin' it wrong
I've been searchin' a ton
Been halfway and beyond
I swear I knew all along
I've been over the thought
It must be I forgot

It must be I forgot
So, it must be I forgot

Mmh, but the chance
The chance, the chance is

Strong
I've been learnin' it wrong
I've been searchin' a ton
Been halfway and beyond
I swear I knew all along
I've been over the thought
It must be I forgot
