

Lorraine

Balthazar

Do not rely on what he gets
I mean look at how their suit fits
Do not compare you with those saints

And Lorraine we can wait on what the truth brings
But you know there are no good things
You can drink without them saints

And Lorraine don't look at all these sane things
I mean what is it that fame brings
Sink without their pain