

Overlap

Balu Brigada

And I know there was an overlap
And I guess I'm feeling kind of bad
Because we know better than that

Another early morning intervention
Another minute to examine my head
Because I'm thinking about a certain someone
And it's not the girl that sleeps in my bed
Man it must have been a part of my dream
And she must have made it in out a chance
But she'd been there thirty nights in a row
That's a pretty big coin to dance

Now the girl's sitting crying in the bathroom
Now all the girls sitting crying in the bathroom
Now the girls all crying in the bathroom
Now all the girls sitting crying in the bathroom
And they always seem to want to go and talk it out
And they always seem to go straight to you
But I'm patient
And I'm waiting
I'm waiting for you, hoping that you come through

And I know there was an overlap
And I guess I'm feeling kind of bad
Because we know better than that
And I know there was an overlap
And you know that I've been holding back
Because we know better than that
Better than that
And I know there was an overlap
And I guess I'm feeling kind of bad
Because we know better than that

Will I ever get the chance to tell you?
Can I tell you that I'm crushing on you? (Crushing on you)
Should I slip and slide into your DM's?
So you keeping me up until the A.M
Now they're asking questions when I'm talking to you
I say that you're just a friend that doesn't matter
And I'd never want to hurt anyone
But I think that something needs to be done

Now the girl's sitting crying in the bathroom
Now all the girls sitting crying in the bathroom
Now the girls all crying in the bathroom
Now all the girls sitting crying in the bathroom
And they always seem to want to go and talk it out
And they always seem to go straight to you
But I'm patient
And I'm waiting
I'm waiting for you, hoping that you come through

And I know there was an overlap
And you know that I've been holding back
Because we know better than that
Better than that

And I know there was an overlap
And I guess I'm feeling kind of bad
Because we know better than that

Leave me alone
Yeah, leave me alone
Don't want you to see me crying and I'd rather be home
Leave me alone
Won't you leave me alone
Yeah I should've seen it coming
Yeah I should've known
Leave me alone
Yeah, leave me alone
I think I get the message and the damage it's done
Leave me alone
Won't you leave me alone
I don't want to be your friend
I don't think I could cope

And I know there was an overlap
And you know that I've been holding back
Because we know better than that
Better than that
And I know there was an overlap
And I guess I'm feeling kind of bad
Because we know better than that
And I know there was an overlap
And I guess I'm feeling kind of bad
