

Subliminal

BamBam

Soon as you stepped in the function
Didn't need no introduction
Shining like a star
Cos you know you are
The baddest in the room you a problem
Tryna hold of my emotion
But it flows like eruption
No hesitation
Just motivation
Can't let you go

Dancing
Don't stop keep on dancing
Girl I'm all about the action
Fast forward and imagine
When I take you back to the mansion
Close your eyes and imagine
You and I with no distractions
Your face is telling me that you know

What you do to me
Should be criminal
If I came too late
Make it official
All the signs you give
They're invisible
Why'd you complicate
Something so simple
(With your subliminals)

Girl you're making it hard to breathe
When you act like you don't need me
Why you frontin'
Playing roulette like you Russian
Somebody said love was free
Running out of currency
Paid you attention
And got nothing back in return yeah

Imagine
Who knows what could happen
You and I with no distractions
Your face is telling me that you know

What you do to me
Should be criminal
If I came too late
Make it official
All the signs you give
They're invisible
Something so simple
(With your subliminals subliminals)

I'll take all of your flaws
They don't matter if I'm all yours
And I'll break every law

Cos they don't mean nothing nothing
They don't mean nothing nothing

Know what you do to me
Should be criminal
If I came too late
Make it official
They're invisible
