Fundamentalist

When I wake up I'm lying in a pool fo blood The game is ruined. allright Failures gabe me a few good lessons Won't hesitate to fight

So I scream, scream, it's nobody else's dream Gonna live my life the only way I can. And nobody can stop me Cuz nobody will understand

I set free the sentamentalist in me Won't wash my mouth with soap I've got goals and scoring power My blood is my dope

I set free the fundamentalist in me

And now this day rolled by in a blur of pleasure It allows me to see myself afresh Don't care about the dread that's coming Cuz life's a blast
