Hey are you blind? why don't you see me?
i'm standing right in front of you. you better believe me Hey are deaf? why can't you hear me?
i'm screaming right into you ear. better believe me

success sucks ass

Don't you know. where the fk you wanna go.
I'll help you out. you'll be mine tonight and now i see just what you're planning and what you claim to be: no.1?

i wanna know what made you grow so tall that you don't see me my status shifts and i like this bit cuz i can see right through you your party's huge. your memory small Cuz suddenly you don't remember me at all where we used to drink. now you're gonna drown cuz you have turned into some asshole clown.
