

No Way

Bambix

I cry befor an open door democracy don't live anymore
she left without a trace those funny feelings when i kissed her when i had her and i ditched her suddenly see m misplaced it's a cold war. a closed door when someone speaks out for me i lost the chance to give my views i'm sick. i have to be renewed and there's no way, no way to let the sun shine in today to give you back another day to have you pushing me away where's the action when i need it i should get out and bleed Cuz it neves comes for free Burning eyes. burning lungs Censorship for burning tongues that can neves speak again.
