Bambix

To all my friends and family to show what i've become they gave the moon and the stars to me and look what i have done

I'm gonna bomb the whole world and then i hide when the rage is boiling up deep inside they made me listen upto all of their stories about the cow chasin the hare and whatever warning me instead of warming me and never told me about the fall under a red moonlight. under a city of lights under the real moonlight

I'm gonna bomb the whole world and then i hide
when the rage is boiling up deep inside I'm giving up on love.
giving up on feelings giving up on hope don't save me I'm giving up on churches giving up on shools givin up on everything, cuz that's cool and sooner or later you can't keep a good girl down
