

Doing dishes and i wash my hair
There's nothing on TB Hevn't got a date for almost 18 years and i don't think i find one here

Can you find the way home
can you help me to find my way back home?

Bored as hell am i. where are you?
the real fighters have all gone where the hell were you in '75
Already fighting to get another life

can you help me to find my way back home?
And i'll see you again in the spotlight of the sun the one who really turned me on and on put out the light

i've been alone. so many year.
the years keep raging in my ears Iam lost without the one i used tho hold I'm cold. the house doesn't give me shelter anymore i need to head towards the door and never come back again
