

Down The Line

Bamboo

Maybe we can talk about this;
Just saying sorry ain't enough I know
I know we've had our share of problems
This one's a big one now you're asking me to go
But I just can't leave and chase me away
Lets walk, just sit down; review what we have today
"No" to let you walk away, you're asking me to give up
But I wont, but I can't

Down the line, every second that I've been missin'
Lower my head on my shin break to the first
Down the line, every second that I've been livin'
Loose direction, fallen deep in the shadow
Down the line, all this questions I got one answer
Then I was stopped, no we wont, no we can't
Down the line, I wont have forgotten
What I've done, had it all, get it up then for what...

I just wasn't thinking how wrong was I; this momentary high
But I did want it to happen, and I told her that I loved her Repeat after me I've done nothing wrong, I've done nothing wrong, I've done nothing wrong
I found every excuse to refuse; clear my head; say my piece; now I'm by myse lf at this moment

Down the line, every second that I've been missin'
Throw my head on my shin break to the first
Down the line, every second that I've been livin'
Loose direction, fallen deep in the shadow
Down the line, all this questions I got one answer
They never stop, no we wont, no we cant
Down the line, I wont have forgotten
What I've done, had it all, get it up then for what...

If this is our last, baby just run away
New names, new faces living our life the way it should've gone
In this beautiful world, I can only hear you say
Will you stay with me there to the start
You come to know, you come to know, you come to know...

Let's wrap this up you say
Time and time again, I've disappointed you, myself
Oh do it for the kids, please stay
You said that's correct sir, a hundred percent sir
That's why, that's why I'll walk away
So I'm losing you, so I'm losing you

I'm falling deeper and deeper, I'm losing you
I'm falling deeper and deeper, I'm losing you
I'm falling deeper and deeper, I'm losing you
I'm falling deeper and deeper, I'm losing you
I'm falling deeper, oh no. oh no. oh no.

I'm falling deeper and deeper child
I'm falling deeper, oh no.
I'm falling deeper and deeper child
I'm falling deeper and deeper child

I'm falling deeper and deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper and deeper deeper and deeper child

The sun's she's gonna rise
