

Firepower

Bamboo

She's got some real firepower
And I already know I'm gone
Yeah, I've got my favorite Vuitton
So let's just go for a ride
She's got some real firepower, real firepower

She's got me picking up bones; that's a whole enemy
I get to do what she likes; that's a whole lot of me
Stranger, danger, beware, buckle up for the kill
She's got some real firepower, real firepower
Check please

Oh, I got Jupiter jumping
And I'm already ready to go; feels like a sign
Shoot, son, I ain't taking chances
You think I already know
She's got some real firepower, real firepower

Yeah, it's a bit of a trick
She's a whole 'nother tale
I get to do what I do, give her no reason to bail
Truly deserves my attention her name on the bill
She's got some real firepower, real firepower
Check please
Check, check please

Sow, sow my own
I ain't looking for that price tag
She worth more than that harem or your Gucci bag
She someone I can hang these old bones on Oh, please

She's got me picking up bones; that's a whole enemy
Yeah, I'm done pulling punches; go be all you can be
Stranger, danger, beware, buckle up for the kill
She's got some real firepower, real firepower
Check please
Check, check please

(She got some real firepower; she for real
She got some real firepower; she for real
She got some real firepower; she for real
She got some real firepower; she for real
She got some real firepower; she for real)

You see I'm already gone
You see I'm already gone
You see I'm already gone
You see I'm already, already gone
