Bunnies & Crows

Bananafishbones

I am older than you think I am
I am higher than the clouds above that rain upon men
I am all in all what you demand
Im a devil with a shell in his hands
I am colder than you think I am
Im a liar and admire all that's colour is gold
I am someones prison don't come close
On a fence between those bunnies and crows
Yesterday was fate
Tomorrow will be great
I can't believe that these are words that I said
I don't believe what I said
Its no relieve to fight the sighs in my head
Im not proud
Im a soldier that is lost in nam
I am so in love with all that's left of my last beer can
I am deaf and dumb, my feet are lame
And I always hear you calling my name
Yesterday was fate
Tomorrow will be great
I can't believe that these are words that I said
I don't believe what I said
Its no relieve to fight the sighs in my head
Im not proud
So you heard a lot about me my friend
Im a liar and admire all that's colour is gold
Sorry if I queered your pitch tonight
Im sorry all is lied, all is lied
Yesterday was great
Tomorrow will be fate
I can't believe that these are words that I said
I don't believe what I said
Its no relieve to hear the words that I said
`cause Im proud
I don't believe a word I said.
