Bananafishes

drinking too much
eating hellfudge
beer in the tub
messes me up
I know I'm strange and I'm down again

give him a break

beard in my face
losing my grace
angry barking dog
breathing black smog
wish that I'd screw off the lid of my life again

I'm trying to lose the taste of being a joke
watching everybody swallow when they're getting close a bottle of beer I found is my new best friend

I'm knowing not much
but I'm taking it around I'm knowing that all the people'll come down you know that I'm caring too much for you

choose the break up
choose the break up
when you take off
choose the break up
choose the break up
when you wanna take off the world is full of people that got it worse than me I hear you say being on my knees thank you for the roses I'll bind myself a crown

as I open my purse
coins are falling down kids are fighting for each of these rolling-rounds I know that I'm caring too much for you

choose the break up
choose the break up
when you take off
choose the break up
choose the break up
when you wanna take off
