

All Because Of You

Bandit Gang Marco

Oh, you were my baby
Now I am here all because of you
I can't trust another girl all because of you
It's really driving me crazy
My hearts cold all because of you
I can't love another girl all because of you

Can you tell me why relationships don't work out
When I tell you keep it real the time is now
I gave you what you need so why you can't treat me right
Oh, knew I couldn't put nothing past you
Cause all the girls the same
Try to hold you down and ride with you
You left me out in the rain
I feel (feel) feel (feel) so much pain [x4]

Everything you said and did girl I believed it
Never thought you'd leave my heart in bits and pieces
They were intentions baby for you and only you
We were on different pages
That shit ain't even cool
I wish I didn't even meet ya'
If I could I wouldn't need ya'
Fuck you don't even need you
Anyway, Anyway
I can find another girl like you
Any day, Any day, Anyways
I feel so much pain, so much pain, so much pain [x2]
Having trust issues and I never ever even fuck with you
(Oh ah)

Oh, you were my baby
Now I am here all because of you
I can't trust another girl all because of you
