Breaking Up A Heart Of Stone

Misery she loves you You're her company Silent nights you wonder Why you cannot sleep

Well, I've seen you standing there But you stand alone I've seen your smiling eyes But where will you go alone now?

Breaking up a heart of stone That chilled to the bone That left you alone Yes I'm breaking up a heart of stone

Now I'm taking you home Full of life, you're still crying In your sleep All you pain

All your anger's gone too deep I've seen you dancing there But you dance alone I've seen your smiling eyes

But your blood runs so cold Breaking up a heart of stone That chilled to the bone Breaking up a heart of stone

That's left you alone Breaking up a heart of stone Now I'm taking you home Breaking up a heart of stone

That chilled to the bone Breaking up a heart of stone That crushed me so Breaking up a heart of stone

Now I'm taking you home You see... You beg... I wait...

What time?
