

Deep End

Bankrol Hayden

(Roy, baby)
Yeah, yeah

Fall into the deep end
Fuck her, then I'm gone for the weekend
I don't want your heart, you can keep it
Your number get deleted
I don't talk it out, I get even
Had to cut her off, she was leeching
Fall into the deep end
Fuck her, then I'm gone for the weekend
I don't want your heart, you can keep it
Your number get deleted
I don't talk it out, I get even
Had to cut her off, she was leeching

Little baby she a angel
I put her in Amiris down to her ankles
So much people tryna feed, I can't eat alone
So much money on my plate, I bought the table
I won't fall victim to a bitch 'cause I don't love her
I can't do relations, too much money in the summer
I gotta draw the line when people show they true colors
I got love for my brothers, everybody else fuck 'em

Fall into the deep end
Fuck her, then I'm gone for the weekend
I don't want your heart, you can keep it
Your number get deleted
I don't talk it out, I get even
Had to cut her off, she was leeching
Fall into the deep end

Your number get deleted
I don't talk it out, I get even
Had to cut her off, she was leeching

Had to cut her off, she was leeching
Look into her eyes, she a demon, and that is the reason
Why I can't be with her, she be scheming
Shorty think she right, I don't believe it
She a nasty girl, I get rough
Like when you get into it, says "Never too much"
I'ma take her for a ride said she need to tune up
Tell 'em haters fall in line, they ain't never doing none

Fall into the deep end
Fuck her, then I'm gone for the weekend
I don't want your heart, you can keep it
Your number get deleted
I don't talk it out, I get even
Had to cut her off, she was leeching
Fall into the deep end
