

Lost Cause

Banks Arcade

We're just seconds away
Let's leave it all in this room
I knew that we'd never stay
But I hoped I could change our fate

You look alone and afraid
I fell in love its my weakness
Weeks have passed since I could see the broken pieces

And now I'm just a part of your tragedy you took away the best of me
Now I'm something that you don't want talk about
Since I said they were sick of me you fell in like you were meant for these
Pretty little secrets I write when I know I'm wrong

Lost cause
You could never be wrong
When you
Talk tough
Don't need anything more
Got me
Locked up you're not trying find love
Just another way to get out the energy

Lost cause
Yeah, you think I'm too much
Let me talk tough
I can make you lose trust
I'm too far gone
I'm just tryna find love
Just another way to say you're the death of me

Heard you talking
I stopped and I tried to listen
You said you're broken and wishing that it was different
I sat beside you and stared off into the distance
Faded while you're telling all your friends about how you miss him

You like right in my eyes like a stranger
Please, just make it all stop I'm afraid
I start to choke and you look the other away, yeah
Running through the crowd
Taking pictures of my tears

Just a part of my tragedy you took away the best of me
Now I'm something that you don't want talk about
Since I said they were sick of me you fell in like you were meant for these
Pretty little secrets I write when I know I'm wrong

Lost cause
You could never be wrong
When you
Talk tough
Got me
Energy

Lost cause
I'm too far gone

Rosé
Got you in my head
You make my soul break
I been better doing better I been ok
But you won't ever see me here again, no
I said I wont catch this fever
Then I fell in love with all your demons
Now that you can hear my voice again
It's a sad song you can never sing

(Lost cause
When you
Talk tough
Got me

Lost cause
Yeah, you think I'm too much
I'm too far gone
