Banks Arcade

Spin the cylinder
Push it to my head
Yeah, I do this for adrenaline
Place another bet
I'm just looking for a cheap thrill
Put it round my neck
I keep doing this dance with death

Speeding down the interstate, liquor in my blood
Got these suicidal tendencies telling me to run
Through the barricade
Turn the steering wheel into the wall
Give it everything
You know that 150 ain't enough
I don't wanna die
I can hear the devil at the door
Saying let him fry
I just put the pedal to the floor
It's a death trap, take another risk for no reward
I can tempt fate
But I always want more

King of the world then I'm a little bitch
Begging for forgiveness
I won't sin
Promise that I'll be a better man
I won't ever take another risk
Then I get that motherfucking itch
Black or red
The bullet's one of six
I think I like my chances
I might win
(Put it all down, let it all spin out)

Medicine's rushing to my head

I can feel it coming back again
Take another sip
We can go and get the better end
Drop 'em 'til it's dead
Take another sip

Spin the cylinder
Push it to my head
Yeah, I do this for adrenaline
Place another bet
I'm just looking for a cheap thrill
Put it round my neck
I keep doing this dance with death

Uh
Do you like the way I fucking lose it?

Spending all my money
Fucking up love
Put me in a cage and I'll start to draw blood
Throw me off the top floor
Pump me full of drugs
It's never enough
It's never enough
We could never be together
Run away baby
I will never do better
This could never end well
Head is off center
I am on a path to get used
Death 2

'Cause I'm addicted to that last step right before death
When I make it out alive I just want it all again
I'm addicted to that last step right before death
When I make it out alive I just click, click

I'm addicted to the last step, uh

Spin the cylinder
