

Sentimental

Banks Arcade

Don't get sentimental
I don't see this ending well
We don't have much forever
Go ahead and kiss me tell me
I can do it better
Than anybody you could raise from the dead
On our last day here

Don't sweat it
Don't act like you meant it
No time to regret it
We made the bed time to lay
Forget that
We're young
No life left
So let's come alive quick
Just love me before there's hell to pay

Push my back to the wall
Guess who's back for the war
Got my blood all over the floor
Just in time for the end of world

Only we can take the blame
Just touch me and say you're not afraid
Baby, we can die today
Just touch me and say that you're ok
We could fly away
Just touch me and say that you're afraid
We could die today

Turning up for the squad
Only show for the profits
Came in heavy with the gods
Left the room feeling godless
Only write what I want
Leave my wrongs in the darkness
Flip that for your cause
Come up short feeling nauseous

I can do what they will never do
Last verse on a pedestal
Whole world burning through the roof
Hellfire bout to let it loose
Knock me out I'll hit right back kick the door in Hit that gas better floor it
Fall in love with a fuck that's stuck on a road to the end of it all

I'm so disrespectful
Works cause I meant to
Take my words as rental
Use them to help your fake fans forget you
I'm so disrespectful
Works cause I meant to
You should my words as rental
I know they'll forget you

Push my back to the wall
Guess who's back for the war
Got my blood all over the floor
Just in time for the end of world

Only we can take the blame
Just touch me and say you're not afraid
Baby, we can die today