Banks Arcade

They say love wins, but I'm not good at it
The truth is I don't like I way I feel most days
Always talking but I say the wrong things
I'm just a lost kid with everything going for me
It makes sense that I should be killing it only
I've been here for over an hour
And you look beautiful
But I can't seem to get it together
I'm walking home again
Kicking myself for the shit I should have said
Second guess
Wonder if one day I'll get a second chance
The boys are on their way to pick me up 'cause I'm too drunk to stand
I'll make 'em all believe that I'm happy and I don't give a damn

There's no escape
I think I'll be like this forever
And I'll stay the same
Messing up my first impressions
Can't learn my lesson
I hope I forget this

Always wanted what I could never have
Cool kids, parties, and pretty pictures for Instagram
Fancy bottles and living like I don't need a plan
We've got the same problems
Let's mix 'em in with this liquor and
Drink the night away. laugh at the songs I wrote about you
I'll tell you everything
I just wanna talk about your side of the story that I wrote in my head
The sad thing 'bout tonight is I already know the end

Forget what happens next
There's magic in regret
I've always seen the dark behind the sun
It makes me guess
If I can live for moments
Maybe time will fix the rest
For now we'll just be kings and queens
And hope the light won't...

There's no escape
I think I'll be like this forever
I'll stay the same
Messing up my first impressions
Can't learn my lesson
I hope I forget this

Forget what happens next
There's magic in regret
I've always seen the dark behind the sun
It makes me guess
If I can live for moments
Maybe time will fix the rest
For now we'll just be kings and queens
And hope the night won't...
