

This Is What It Feels Like

Banks

I hate on everything that you say
You know I don't see all the things that I cry
You secretly hiding love
And finally when I have myself fall
Hard for you I see you trying to pretend
Like I'm making it up
This is what it feels like
This is what it feels like

Bring it down, bring it on
Bring it now, bring it on
This is what it feels like now
It's been enough
Bring it down, bring it on

And when my love is totally made
You said that you couldn't sleep cause
Of what I told you
I got you off hard
And then when you said you felt the same
You prone away
Started acting like me when it was too hard
This is what it feels like
This is what it feels like
This is what it feels like

Bring it down, bring it on
Bring it now, bring it on
This is what it feels like now
Scared enough
Bring it down, bring it on

Bring it down, bring it on
Bring it now, bring it on
This is what it feels like now
Scared enough
Bring it down, bring it on

Bring it down, bring it on
Bring it now, bring it on
This is what it feels like now
Scared enough
Bring it down, bring it on
