

Modern Shakes

Banner Pilot

When I woke up
Saw sun had passed me by
It was rainfall
And a red wine colored sky

It was right there
But moments disappear
Where are you?
Do you know that I'm still here?

You blew through
Said I never fit in nowhere
I miss you!
But you know I hope you get there
On your rooftop
Drunk in the spring time
We got so high
Above the fault line
You just stared out
Saw through the stop signs
I'm trying but, I'm falling down

On your rooftop
Drunk in the spring time
We got so high
You just stared out
Saw through the stop signs
I'm trying but, I'm falling down
Walked along the tracks westbound
Listening for the faded sound
Of you
