Easy

BANNERS

I caught myself today
Same smile as yesterday
I'll never know
How you make it so beautiful

With everything you are
When I was torn apart
I didn't know
I could live for tomorrow

I was so sad, I was so sad
And the road was so fucking long
It was so hard, it was so hard

You, you showed me how to see me
When you do, you make it easy, make it easier
And yesterday, tomorrow and today, and all you do
You make it easy loving you

It's like there's half of me
That I could never see
Until you came
And danced in the hurricane

So when the storm comes through
Then I just think of you
It's you and I
Standing under a golden sky

I was so sad, I was so sad
And the words were all fucking wrong
It was so hard, it was so hard

Then you, you showed me how to see me
When you do, you make it easy, make it easier
And yesterday, tomorrow and today, and all you do
You make it easy loving you
You make it easy loving you
You make it easy loving you
(Oh every day you make it all, you make it all okay)
(I just wanna say I love the way)
You make it easy loving you
(Oh every day you make it all, you make it all okay)
(I just wanna say I love the way)
You make it easy loving you
