

I'm Not Sorry

bAnoffee

This is how it always was (I am not sorry, sorry)
Do I make you nervous?
This is how we've always learned
Oooh, eh, eh

Seems like people got a mind that is just like mine
Wanna puff up their chests, and say that we're all fine
The tightrope is just a frayed out twine
We've lost touch

I'm not sorry about not knowing what's right
I'm not sorry, for being this shite
I'm not sorry for not understanding
I won't feel guilty

I'm not sorry for not understanding
And I'm not sorry for caring about what people think
I'm not sorry, for trying not to shrink
And I'm not sorry, and I won't feel guilty
I'm not sorry

How long is too long to live under your hate?
So many years, built it up like dry, cracked clay
I won't let you down
But I can't, can't have you around anymore
I'm not sorry

I'm not sorry for not understanding
And I'm not sorry for caring about what people think
I'm not sorry for trying not to shrink
And I'm not sorry, and I won't feel guilty
I'm not sorry, sorry

How could I love you better?
How could I be more able?
How could I learn to protect you?
How do these ears stay stable?

Grazes and bruises, from just being human
Grazes and bruises

I'm not sorry

How could I love you better?
How could I be more able?
How could I learn to protect you?
How do these ears stay stable?

Grazes and bruises, from just being human
Grazes and bruises

I'm not sorry

I'm not sorry
I'm not sorry
I'm not sorry

I'm not sorry

I'm not sorry

I'm not sorry
