River's so deep, when we were here last time
Twisted in sheets, all of these pastimes
Killing me slowly, I might just turn it off
Stranger things have made me think of you
This drink and perfume
Do you think of me, or do you just turn it off?

I needed more (you always knew that)
I know you traded (couldn't supply it, -ply it)
I needed more (you always knew that)
Breathe, breathe in

Put your hands on my skin
Your body will remember
Breathe out and I breathe in (undulating)
Put your hands on my skin
Remember, your body will remember
Breathe in, breathe in

Put your thumb in my palm
Feel the lines, how they breathe in time
And I'm not yours, and you're not mine
Something new that we'll never find again (breathe in)

I needed more (you always knew that)
I know you traded (couldn't supply it, -ply it)
I needed more (you always knew that)
Breathe, breathe in

Put your hands on my skin
Your body will remember
Breathe out and I breathe in (undulating)
Put your hands on my skin
Remember, your body will remember
Breathe in

Breathe
Breathe
Breathe
Breathe in
Breathe
Breathe in

Put your hands on my skin
Breathe out and I breathe in (undulating)
Put your hands on my skin
Remember, your body will remember
Your body will remember

Breathe out and breathe in
And put your hands on my skin
Breathe out and
Your body will remember
Breathe in and
Your body will remember
