I will make you breakfast
Before you wake up
I'll sneak down to the shops
And make it just the way you like it

'Cause I know how you like it
And I know how to make it
And if the wind has got you shaking
I will be your blanket

I will make you dinner
Keep it on the stove so it's hot when you get home
And it will keep sown from the winter

'Cause I know that you like it hot
And I'll butter your bread for you
She can go planting those forget-me-nots
'Cause in this skull there's only room for two

It's funny how things they change
I thought I could get you to go away
My mind, my mind, my mind, my mind's
Working against me
It's funny how things they change
I thought I could get you to go away
My mind, my mind, my mind, my mind's
Working against me
It's funny how things they change (how did you think you could get away with it?)
I thought I could get you to go away (did you think you got awa y?)
My mind, my mind, my mind, my mind's (how did you think you cou ld get away with it?)
Working against me (did you think you got away?)
It's funny how things they change (how did you think you could get away with it?)
I thought I could get you to go away (did you think you got awa y?)
My mind, my mind, my mind, my mind's (how did you think you cou ld get away with it?)
Working against me (did you think you got away?)

You thought you could kill me now
Well honey I'd like to see how
I'm a fucking soldier now
I won't let you bring me down
You thought you could kill me now
Well honey I'd like to see how

I'm a fucking ninja now
I won't let you bring me down
