

Reign Down

bAnoffee

Please accept the love I give My heart knows there's a point in giving in Can't forget, I can forgive
You might miss my laugh
I know there's no point in this world tryna keep your eyes (Shouldn't have to)
Lookin' ahead, you are behind
Know you thought twice, should've thought the third time, but

(You gotta let go)
I, I will reign down
I melted for this
I will reign down
Since you've let me go
I will reign down
I melted you for this
I will reign down
Since you've let me go!

Take your paper, your pen
I wanna let you out again
My heart's a mess
These ribs and chest were torn from you
Broken, bruised
Boy, if I got to choose it's me, not you
Won't be used by you
So tell me, did you think that I would hold on
To the ropes that you pulled me on?
(Pulled me on)
I'm like, fuck that, I got a wall to build
Shield to yield, no mouth just gills
For you I had to learn these skills

(You gotta let go)
I, I will reign down
I melted for this
I will reign down
Since you've let me go
I will reign down
I melted for this
I will reign down
Since you've let me go

Oh, my heart breaks with every step away
My heart breaks with every step away

(I gotta let go)
I, I will reign down
I melted for this
I will reign down
Since you've let me go
I will reign down
I melted for this
I will reign down
Since you've let me go
