

Something Great

bAnoffee

Sometimes I wake up
And I forget
And I reach over to your side of the bed
Just to remember
That you don't do forgiveness

Time moves slow, and I find myself
Making up reasons to ask for your help
But I won't, 'cause I know
You don't do forgiveness

(And even though you won't)
And even though you won't
Look me in the eye
I'm here to tell you
That I will never lie to you
I will tell you straight
We had something great

And even though you won't
Even tell me why
I know it hurts you to see me cry
So I will tell you straight
That was my worst day
'Cause we had something great

Now that you're gone
I lie around making songs
'Bout everything that went right
I forget what went wrong
But it doesn't matter now
'Cause you don't do forgiveness

You say to move on
And I tell you I've tried
But I wake up heaving
From the hurt every night
I wish I could tell you, I'm sorry
But you don't do forgiveness

And even though you won't
Look me in the eye
I'm here to tell you
That I will never lie to you
I will tell you straight
We had something great

And even though you won't
Even tell me why
I know it hurts you to see me cry
So I will tell you straight
That was my worst day
