

ETERNAL TRIP

Banshee

If I am the last thing that you see before you sleep
You'll see things inside your dreams, that you've never ever seen
I will live inside your mind until the morning you don't wake

My image, [?]
Your side, forever
Your eyes, I wonder

One day you, will forget
Everything, except me
I am a, storm raging
In your heart, forever

If I am the last thing that you see before you sleep
You'll see things inside your dreams, that you've never ever seen
I will live inside your mind until the morning you don't wake
Once you release your last breath hallucinate eternally

Creeping eyes [?]
'Til you're drowning in your tears
Slice you up, demon teeth
Monsters eat you in your sleep
Creeping eyes [?]
