

I'm The Worst

Banshee

You can't feel a thing
I bet you can't feel a thing
You told me to jump
I said "How high are you right now"
You're on that ambien
I've been up all fuckin' night just
Tryna put you in your place
Don't you ever come at me
You will never fuckin change
I'm convinced that everyone I meet is Wearing a camera that only you can see
Streaming that live Banshee feed
Feeling like I can't even breath
Without you somewhere listening
You are all the fucking same
Change my name
Move away
You're so fucking empty
You mean nothing to me
Wish someone had warned me
You're a fucking plague
You told me to jump
Bitch you first
Go tell everyone that I'm the worst
He told me to jump I said "You first"
Someone call the doctor
Call the nurse
See him driving off in a hearse
Now he's just another verse
I guess I'm just a fucking curse
