

I'd Give Anything

Barbara Mandrell

When January freezes
Let me melt the cold
Be the one you hold hands with
As we're growing old

Be the one you remember
When this life's dream is through
Oh I'd give anything
To be everything to you

When you feel like singing
Let me be your song
Let me share the silence
When the music's gone

I wanna be in your heart
When there's only room for two
Oh I'd give anything
To be everything to you

Let me be your hiding place
When you feel the world the most
You can tell me all the things
You want no-one else to know

Let me be the answer
When you haven't got a clue
Oh I'd give anything
To be everything to you
I'd give anything
To be everything to you
