

Tonight

Barbara Mandrell

Tonight's my lucky night I know
He talked to me
To tell me he's been thinking of me
And all this time he's changed his mind
Oh, he told me so
That's how I know he's gonna love me

Tonight's the night
We'll turn out the light
And love again
Like we did back then
And we'll start all over
Tonight

Tonight's my lucky night I'm sure
He's at my door
I've waited for this chance to hold him
And how I see he's needed me
Oh, imagine that
He's coming back
Coming back to live forever

Tonight's the night
We'll turn out the light
And love again
Like we did back then
Tonight
