

Not That Girl

Barbie Almalbis

I got this phantom feeling
Works hard to pull me down
Back then, I'd still be running
But things are different now

Tell them I'm not who I was before
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore
We buried the key and we locked the door
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore

Life like a hurricane
And losing every game
You lift me from the shame
And your love doesn't leave me the same

Tell them I'm not who I was before
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore
We buried the key and we locked the door
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore

(I'm not that girl anymore)

Tell them I'm not who I was before
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore (I'm not that girl anymore)
We buried the key and we locked the door
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore (Anymore)
Tell them I'm not who I was before
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore
We buried the key and we locked the door
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore (Anymore)
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore (Not that girl)
Oh, I'm not that girl anymore (Anymore)
