

Breakdown

Barcelona

Pack it up, pack your bags
You're moving uptown
You had enough, pushing to the top
It won't stay down, well

The city don't care what's best for you
It just spits you out
If you wanna give up, if you wanna give up
Let me be your breakdown

Can I be your breakdown?
Can I be your breakdown?
And if you want to leave tonight
Can I be your way out?
Can I be your breakdown?
Can I be your breakdown?
And if you want to leave tonight
Can I be your way out?

Try so hard, it feels just right
When he hurts you
All of your friends, so concerned
Say "what's she gonna do?"
Well

I watch him leave you every night
So I'm here now
You don't have to break up
Let me be your breakdown

Can I be your breakdown?
Can I be your breakdown?
And if you want to leave tonight
Can I be your way out?
Can I be your breakdown?
Can I be your breakdown?
And if you want to leave tonight
Can I be your way out?

And you have tried to forgive the lies
He doesn't deserve you
You hold him tight on sleepless nights
Even though you don't want to
The city life is cruel sometimes
It can make you burn out
Let's leave tonight, leave him behind
Let me be your, can I be your

Can I be your breakdown?
Can I be your breakdown?
And if you want to leave tonight
Can I be your way out?
Can I be your breakdown?
Can I be your breakdown?
And if you want to leave tonight
Can I be your way out?

Can I be your breakdown?
Can I be your breakdown?
And if you want to leave tonight
Can I be your way out?
