It's A Fine Day

Barcode Brothers

It's a fine day
People open windows
They leave their houses
Just for a short walk
They walk by the cross
They look at the cross
They look at the sky

It's going to be a fine night tonight
It's going to be a fine day tomorrow

It's a fine day
People open windows
They leave their houses
Just for a short walk
They walk by the cross
They look at the cross
They look at the sky

It's a fine day
People open windows
They leave their houses
Just for a short walk
They walk by the cross
They look at the cross
They look at the sky

It's going to be a fine night tonight
