

American Born

Bargain Music

I've got the mind of a revolutionary
Trapped in a couch potato's body
Fishing on Sundays my only exercise
I wake up every morning with no destination
And I'm back in bed by nine
I've gotten good at tuning you out and avoiding your eyes

I, I'm american born
I, I'm american born

All I've got these days is time to think that's all I do
Old regrets and jealousies and getting angry at you

I'm american born
I, I'm american born
