

The Dirge

Baroness

When my ship is sailing
When my race is run
When my breath is failing
I'll know my time has come

And then we'll be together
You and I as one
I'll feel your light forever
And burn beneath your sun

Now my ship is sailing
Now the race is run
I know my breath is failing
Now my time is up
