

Jenny

Barrie

Jenny dropped under the water
Been waiting, pressed my head into her collar
Devotion, I don't know
Emotion, high to low
Yeah I don't know

Jenny, I don't know where to love from
Never had to hold myself true to someone

Jenny, let me punch her shoulder
Jenny, I'm only the opener
Met her at the show, she goes too
Man, I hate guitar, except with you

Jenny, I don't know where to love from
Never had to hold myself true to someone
Jenny, did you love me in July?
Jenny, could you love me if you tried

Jenny, I don't know where to love from (Jenny, I don't know where to love from when my time comes)
Never had to hold myself true to someone
(Never had to hold myself true to someone when I'm said and done)
Jenny, did you love me in July?
(Do you love me? Do you love me?
Do you love me? do you love me now?)
Jenny, could you love me if you tried
(Do you love me? Do you love me?
Do you love me? do you love me now?)
